Resident of the Month...

Anna Gross

Anna Gross, Heber Valley Care Center's "Resident of the Month", was a very special baby to her parents, Martha and Andrew A. Lindsay. She was born Feb. 29, 1912-a Leap Year Baby! Her father worked as a miner and a machinist and Anna spent her youth in Park City and Heber City. In eighth grade, Anna learned to play the trumpet and she became an excellent musician.

In 1928, Anna married Max Boshard and they were the parents of one son, Jay, who now lives in Wyoming. She married Robert Gross in 1939 and they had two sons. George Gross is a professor at Northern Michigan University and Joe lives in Utah and visits his mother often. Anna now has six grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Their pictures decorate her walls. She has lived in Texas, Wyoming, Kansas and Missouri as well as Utah.

For many years, Anna worked caring for elderly in their homes. She has been active in church work and enjoyed gardening, sewing and crocheting.

Anna is a good cook and known for the delicious baked goods she would make for her friends and neighbors. Her sister, Martha Agle, lives in Heber and is able to talk with Anna daily on the phone. "Anna has always been such a good hearted person," her sister said.

Locals Volunteers Honore

The General Society of the Daughters of Utah Pioneers founded April 11, 1901. The organization consists of-A Cen Company, County Companies, and Camps. A camp consists ten or more members of the association residing within a si district. A daughter of a Utah Pioneer must be over eight years of age and of good character and be a lineal or a leg adopted decendant of an ancestor who came to Utah before coming of the railroad May 10, 1869. There is a constitu and bylaws setup to govern this organization. The object of organization is to honor the names and achievements of n women and children who were the pioneers in founding and tling the Territory of Utah-by preserving old landmarks, mar historical places, collecting and preserving relics and histo

The Hawthorn Camp Daughters of Utah Pioneers, Mid Utah, was organized in February 1921. Meetings are held each month beginning in September through May. The mee are held under the directions of the Executive Committee w consists of- Captain, 1st Vice Capt., 2nd Vice Capt., Secretary-Treasurer.

For the past two years for our Christmas Party, the Hawt Camp has elected to bring a gift for a friend at the Heber V Care Center instead of the usual exchange of gifts wi member. We have enjoyed this project very much. The resid and staff express their appreciation to the Daughter Pioneers for their continued dedication to making a wond Christmas at the Heber Valley Care Center.
